“ We found Morgann to be very personable, articulate and thorough. She knows estate law! Thank you very much for simplifying the complex and making this process a rewarding experience.

“ I have had the pleasure of updating a Will which I had previously done about 10 years ago. At a recent seminar I was first introduced and really educated about doing a Will and in particular Estate Wills. I feel that my Lawyer Morgann, was extremely helpful in explaining different ways of doing your Will, the pros and cons of doing a good Will. In particular I like the diagram approach. I am very happy that I have put everything possible in place for my daughter and her family.

Morgann is an associate at Estate First Lawyers. Morgann has worked with Estate First Lawyers since 2011. She has completed her Bachelor of Laws, graduating with Honours from the University of Queensland and is also a Commissioner for Declarations. Morgann is currently studying for her Masters of Law (Estate Planning) with the College of Law.

Since working with Estate First Lawyers, Morgann has developed a special interest in succession law with a particular focus on estate planning. She enjoys the fast paced environment and challenging work that this area of the law presents and appreciates the need to develop unique solutions for every client.

Morgann has developed particular experience in estate planning for blended families, which is a complex area of the law. She enjoys participating in client meetings, drafting sophisticated estate plans and liaising with clients at 'the coal face' level. Morgann also has expertise in cross jurisdictional matters, which is a growing area of estate planning law.
